DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-16, drawn to an apparatus for folding/forming web, classified in class 493, subclass 418.
 - II. Claims 17-31, drawn to a method for folding a web, classified in class 493, subclass 357.

If applicant elects Group I, it will be further restricted between the two following sub-groups:

- IA. Claims 1-2, 5-9, drawn to an apparatus for folding web, classified in class 493, subclass 405.
- IB. Claims 3-4, 10-16, drawn to an apparatus for forming a non-woven web, classified in class 428, subclass unknown.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus such as by a melt-spinning device capable of discharging a stream of filaments.

3. Inventions IA and IB are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination as claimed in Group IA, claims 1-2, 5-9, does not require a melt-spinning device capable of discharging a stream of filaments of the subcombination as claimed in Group IB, claims 3-4, 10-16. The subcombination has separate utility such as forming a non-woven web.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to William Allen on 10/28/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
